U. S. Consul General.

The Council met at noon. Present:-His Excellency the Governor, DEAR SIE,-Wishing to produce to the consi- The Hon-bles. Colonial Secretary, Acting al, Alexander Perceval, F. Chomley, and C.

W. Murray. The minutes of the last meeting were The Clerk then proceeded to read the Jury List, and stated, that a letter had been received from Mr. Alexander S. Watson of the Hongkong Dispensary, praying that himself and assistants might be exempted from serving as Jurous, on account of the great incon-S soon as the Capital is subscribed for and a venience and even danger, which might ensue Meeting called to frame laws and appoint from the properly qualified assistants employ-Directors, &c., and sign a deed of settlement sim- ed in his establishment, being absent from Mr. Rennie said, that it seemed by referring to the list, that there were two assistants besides Mr. Watson himself at the Dispensary, and as it was not probable that the Twelve Godowas strongly-built, and ground ap- | three would be called at one time, he did not pertaining, measuring in all 705.75 superficial feet | see the necessity for allowing them all to be exempted.

Mr. Perceval was of opinion, that it was highly necessary that these gentlemen should be exempted, and considered it very hard upon the community that for the sake of the juries, people should be compelled to take the chance of wrong medicine being sent them, in consequence of the very few competent Apothecaries we have in this colony being out of the way. He proposed that Mr. Watson and his assistants, and all holding similar positions in the Colony should be exempted 5,000 His Excellency agreed with Mr. Perceval, 1,700 and the application was granted.

The exemption of Editors and those connected with the Press was then spoken of, His Excellency said that it having been decided to exempt Editors and foremen, that was quite sufficient, without removing the names of assistants and reporters. Some discussion took place as to the propriety of Chinese acting as jurors, in which his Excellency said that in Singapore they so neted, and performed the duties in a most . Capers. creditable manner-Mr. Perceval considered that many of the highly respectable Chinese merchants in Hongkong were far better fitted for jurymen than some of the Portuguese who were made Several letters were read from persons claiming exemption, and from others to be

It was desired that the small coins should be manufactured at home, in consequence of the greater facilities there afforded. If at any future time, however, it should be thought desirable to make the smaller coin at our own mint, it would be unnecessary to make any alteration in the Ordinance to admit of that being done. The scheme is supposed to repay to the Colony the outlay for the ground, the materials, and the whole establishment, to be not only self supporting, but to give an annual profit. Not a large profit however should be looked for, which if found too large would be appropriated to the reduction of the rate at which the business can be done. The Home Mint would receive no profit from our coinage, and it had allowed us that accruing from the coins already sent us from Tower Hill, viz. on the ten cent pieces 100 per cent Ship Owners, and Captains, that their charges

His Excellency said that that call had no connection whatever with the Mint scheme. They ALL persons indebted to the above Estate are | would doubtless have applied for one them-A requested to make immediate payment, and elves had he (the Governor) not told them all claims against the Estate must be forwarded that ours was already decided upon. He had thought that Kowloon would be a suitable site for the buildings, but that opened a question of Insurance. There was some ground also available at West Point beyond the Sailor's Heme.

Mr. Perceval thought that Kowloon would be very inconvenient, for he remembered times when it had been impossible for boats to cross for three days.

His Excellency proposed that a Notice nine feet on Aberdeen Street, comprising a supshould be put in the Gazette calling on parorficial area of about 19000 square feet. The Bill was read a second time and passed, being entituled "An Ordinance to establish a Mint for the Colony of Hongkong." The Conneil then adjourned sine die.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR. To the Editor of the" Daily Press." Sides of English BATON.

EBAB SIR. - Why was the steamer Formore sent into quarantine a few days ago, after all her Chinese and European passengers had been landed?
Because there was a solitary case of small pox on board! Yet H. M. S. Encounter is permitted to remain at anchor close to the shore, having constant communication with the shore, and having three cases of small pox attended by the Surgeon of the ship, at the Hospital on Green Isld. Tours truly
